Former Student Athlete Sentenced for Sexual Assault

An ex-college student was sentenced today to eight years in state prison for sexually assaulting a woman at the California State University, Northridge campus, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

On Sept. 4, Davis Moreno-Jaime, 20, of Loma Linda was convicted by a jury of one felony count of forcible rape.

Deputy District Attorney Julie Kramer said Moreno-Jaime also was ordered today to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life.

Moreno-Jaime, who was a student athlete at CSUN at the time, sexually assaulted a woman in January 2018, according to evidence presented at the trial.

Case PA091406 was investigated by the California State University, Northridge Police Department, and the Los Angeles Police Department, Devonshire Division.
